GUIDEBOOK FOR THE YOUNG TRUMPETER

Jean Moorehead Libs

RECCOMENDATIONS FOR BEGINNING BAND METHODS AND SUPPORTING MATERIALS FOR STUDY.

The following materials all come with cassette and or CDs as a part of study. These are excellent professional models for the student to emulate. They are ideal for homogeneous classes, studio teaching the beginner, and highly suitable for the home schooled musician. All books come with a teacher/parent manual. All materials are designed for the first through third year of development.

1. James O. Froseth and Thomas Dvorak, Introducing the Trumpet, from the Individualized Instructor Series, G.I.A. Publications, Inc.
2. James O. Froseth, The Individualized Instructor, book one, two, and three, and supplementary materials, G.I.A. Publications.

For additional materials in this series see: James O. Froseth, The First Individualized Concert Collection, Supplementary Book One and Two, G.I.A. Publications.

To experience further diversity in music of other times, including music from the 12th, 15th, 16th centuries, 18th and 19th century folk tunes, 1940's and 50's jazz, blues and rock – and –roll, see: James O Froseth, Do It! A Beginning Band Method For Trumpet. G.I.A. Publications.

For individual or group study of jazz improvisation see; James O. Froseth and Albert Blaser, Do It! Improvise, book one and two for all instruments. G.I.A. Publications.

3. Richard F. Grunow, Edwin E. Gordon, and Christopher D. Azzara, Jump Right In: The Instrumental Series for trumpet. G.I.A. Publications. This series helps develop musicianship beyond the classroom. The CDs include performances of artist faculty from the Eastman school and Rochester Philharmonic.

Other supporting materials by the same author includes: the Composition Book 1, Solo Book 1, 2, and 3 – writing (for all instruments) and an Ensemble Book One and Two (for all instruments). G.I.A. Publications.

All G.I.A. Publications can be found via their website; www.giamusic.com.

4. Sandy Feldstein and John O'Reilly, Yamaha Band Student for Trumpet. Books 1, 2 and 3. For group or individual instruction. Alfred Publishing Co., Inc.
5. John O'Reilly and Mark Williams, Accent on Achievement for Trumpet. Alfred Publishing Co., Inc. Books 1, 2 and 3. In addition to the materials contained in the Yamaha Band Student, this book includes reproducible music theory and composer worksheets, rhythm flash cards and music history.
6. For the advancement of technique in conjunction with a method book; Erickson's, The Artistry Of Fundamentals for Band, Alfred Publishing Co. Inc., is an excellent collection of studies designed for band or individual use. The units are divided into major and minor groups up to and including four flats and sharps. Additional chorale, scale studies, arpeggios, intervals rhythm exercises and etudes.

For further materials in the form of play-along books and recordings investigating blues, jazz, fusion and Latin music see: Steve Houghton and Tom Warrington, Alfred Master Tracks. Alfred Publishing Co., Inc.

If you are interested in solo materials for trumpet with a unique opportunity to play along with music's best performer's see:

Mike Garson and Allen Vizzuti, Trumpet Solos for the Performing Artist. Alfred Publishing Co., Inc.

MUSIC THEORY, HISTORY AND SUPPLEMENTAL BOOKS

For classroom or individual use for further development of Music Theory see Alfred Publishing Co. Essentials of Music Theory, as a complete set or individual books 1,2 and 3. These books include short exercises, lessons and ear training, complete with CD's and a teacher's guide. Computer software for both Macintosh and Windows are available.

Embouchure Enlightenment, Young. An excellent text for the serious trumpet student and studio teacher seeking additional information about embouchure mechanics. Robert King Music Sales Inc.

Essential Dictionary of Music Notation, Gerou/Lusk. Alfred Publishing Co. This pocket-sized dictionary presents current notation practices in an easy to use format. This is an essential addition to the library of any musician looking for a handy reference for the correct notation of music. This is an excellent source whether using a pencil or a computer.

Experiencing Music, Alfred Publishing Co. This is an innovative college text offering a chronological history of music from its beginning through the electronic age. It explores the creative relationship between composers, performers and their audiences. An excellent addition to the learning process for a college bound music major.

Flash Cards, Alfred Publishing Co. A set of 89 color-coded flash cards that includes all notes, symbols and terms for the first two years of study on any musical instrument. Cards are color coded by category and are numbered on the back.

Introduction To The Musical Brain, Campbell. This book explores the functions, theories, and musical expressions of the brain in correlation with music education. Available through the www.wwandbw.com .(the woodwind and brasswind company).

Jazz Theory and Practice, Alfred Publishing Co. A modern introduction to jazz theory giving examples of repertoire, performers, arrangers and composers combined with practical knowledge of the theoretical foundations of jazz. CD-ROM is also available.

Master Theory, Charles Peters and Paul Yoder. Kjos Music Co. This is a six part series beginning with the basics and progresses through advanced harmony and arranging. Each book is a complete text and work and workbook in itself containing thirty short lessons and assignments. All work can be done on an individual basis.

Music Outline Series, Alfred Publishing Co. Volume 1 - 5 covers Renaissance, Baroque, Early American, 20th Century and Chamber Music. These volumes are a thorough and complete outline of music history covered in the undergraduate years of music school.

Pocket Dictionary of Music, Feldstein. Alfred Publishing Co. This book contains thousands of entries covering all areas of music. It also includes contemporary terms and composers from the popular genre as well as classical terms and composers.

Practical Theory, Alfred Publishing Co. A three-volume set for classroom or individual use, reinforced with computer lab software. Perfect for studio or classroom use. The set contains a combination text and workbook. The materials are available in both windows and Macintosh format.

Practical Dictionary of Music Theory, Feldstein. Alfred Publishing Co. This dictionary contains clear concise definitions and musical examples of all basic music theory. Its complete index and handy reference charts will answer most of your day-to-day theory questions.

Standard of Excellence Music Theory and History Workbooks 1, 2 and 3. Elledge, Yarbrough and Pearson. Kjos Music Co. These books correlate with the Standard of Excellence band method books, 1, 2 and 3. This curriculum sets the course for a lifetime of music appreciation. This is an excellent addition for the individual or the classroom setting for the middle school musician.

The Complete Guide To Trumpet Playing. Johnson. A clear, concise and comprehensive book for all trumpeters. Contains exercises, suggested literature and equipment, and information about pursuing a career (or hobby) in music. Available through the www.wwandbs.com. Website.

The Mind's Ear, Adolphe. This book contains exercises that range from amusing suggestions and games to rather challenging musical endeavors. Available through www.wwandbw.com.

Trumpeter's Treasury of Information, Bellamah. This book contains much practical knowledge for the high school musician. An excellent addition to any trumpeter's library. Robert King Music Sales Inc. or Southern Music Co.

For theory and activities that expand the concepts in the band and individual method books at an introductory level, see: Dr. Anne Hardin, Yamaha Student Workbook. Alfred Publishing Co., Inc.

BEGINNING TRUMPET/CORNET METHOD BOOKS

SOLO LITERATURE FOR THE SECOND AND THIRD YEAR

The following material is to be performed with piano accompaniment unless noted. Finding solo literature for the young trumpeter that is substantive yet enjoyable was the mission in deciding what might be included in this list. No attempt has been made to include the majority of what is available today by all publishing companies, rather these selections were determined by their playability and educational value.

Materials are listed by companies that currently list them for purchase.
